IN THE MATTER OF THE
RETIREMENT OF CHIEF DEPUTY
CLERK MELISSA FULLER

Upon her retirement after twenty-eight years of service to the appellate courts of the State of Arkansas, the court expresses its gratitude to our former Chief Deputy Clerk, Melissa Fuller. She began her service to our court system in her youth and, after a twenty-eight year tenure during which she worked for thirty-two judges, Melissa is still young. We are fortunate to have had the benefit of her ability, dedication to duty, and professionalism; her good nature and ready wit have been the bonuses for which she will be remembered. The court is grateful for her outstanding service and wishes her an active, fulfilling, and joyful future.
